CORALES GOLF CLUB

The rising sun on the horizon, the waves breaking on the coral cliffs, and the lush green grass will be the first sights your eyes see when stepping out onto the first tee. Tom Fazio's dramatic 18-hole championship golf course, opened in 2019, quickly joined the ranks of the world's finest golf experiences, becoming the home of the PGA Tour Corales Puntacana Championship.

Wide fairways, dramatic bunkers, deep quarries, and tight lies characterize the inland holes. The six holes along the ocean will get your heart racing with forced carries over coral cliffs, crashing waves, and a persistent Caribbean breeze. Corales' last three holes have been named the Devil's Elbow, a name that will become obvious when you drop your final putt on the 18th green.

CORALES PUNTACANA CHAMPIONSHIP

Corales is the home of the first-ever PGA TOUR event held in the Dominican Republic. The seventh edition of the Corales Puntacana Championship was hosted from April 15-21, 2024, with victory claimed by Billy Horschel, who scored -23 and earned 300 FedEx Cup Points.

The Corales Golf Course is a par 72 that measures 7,670 yards, making it one of the longest courses on the PGA Tour in 2024.

The 2025 Corales Puntacana Championship will be held from April 14-18, 2025.

LA CANA GOLF CLUB

27 holes of resort golfing at its finest. Each 9-hole layout is named after its surrounding residential community, once celebrated as “the number one course in the Caribbean” by Golf Magazine. Pot bunkers, moguls, lakes, and railroad ties protect many of the greens of this seaside masterpiece, featuring 6 of the 12 ocean-view holes played right along the Caribbean Sea.

P.B. Dye’s design is one that you will never tire of playing, especially with its mesmerizing oceanside holes on one of the country’s most spectacular beaches, featuring white sands and crystal-clear water. Prepare to be impressed from the moment you step foot inside the clubhouse overlooking a private pool and beach until the last birdie putt on the 18th hole.
